

My winter count

Think about the most important thing that has happened to you, your family or your community since the first snowfall of last winter. Maybe you moved house, welcomed a new sibling, or travelled to a new place. Choose one event as a reminder of the year and draw a symbol to represent this below.